The weather has been downright cold at night this week. It is unusual - and hot weather will be here in a few days -- you can bet on it. This turn of events has the temperature in our area lower than some of the unusually warm days

Libyan MIG-23 fighter pilots refused to take off and engage U.S. raiders during the recent air raid on that country. Reports being given to us unknowing civilians is that they are afraid of night flying. We don't know about that but it could be that their experience has shown the Russian jets don't do so well in the night air. Whatever -- the mothers of those who were flying the American planes appreciate letting their sons return safely to home

Daylight saving time begins again this weekend. The changes each spring and fall continue to confuse many of us. We have personally had our troubles with it, and others continue to do so. The confusion ranges from just which weekend to make the change, which way to turn our clocks, and simply forgetting to do anything. This time around we can all miss church by "forgetting" to SPRING FORWARD one hour at 2 a.m. Sunday morning. Now you and I don't have to stay awake until the appointed hour -- we can just make the clock adjustment before normal bedtime and the only way we will know any difference is our sleepy eyes from getting up that hour earlier.

 ANSWERS TO YOUR BIBLE QUESTIONS

QUESTION:

Should a person be baptized in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost, or in the name of Jesus

Jesus said, "All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost" (Matt. 28:18-19). Despite this command, there is no example of these words being said at any New Testament baptism.

Because the baptism examples we find mention only the name of Jesus, some have erroneously concluded that we are to baptize in the name of Jesus only. For example, Acts 2:38 says, "be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ." Acts 8:16 says, "baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus." Acts 10:48 says, "baptized in the name of the Lord." Acts 19:5 says, "baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus."

Although these examples do not mention the Father or the Holy Ghost, neither do they include any universal "formula" for baptism. Each verse has a different phrase: "Jesus Christ," "the Lord Jesus," 'the Lord," and "the Lord Jesus." This alone should indicate that there is no set "formula" that must be said at baptism to make it Jesus began the Great Commission with the words, "All authority hath been given unto me in heaven, and on earth. Go ye therefore" (Matt. 28:18-19). The "therefore" means that the reason we are to go into all the world is that He has all authority in religion. Because He has all authority, we do not have the right to do anything in religion that He has not authorized. Since Jesus Himself said to baptize "in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Ghost," men clearly disobey Christ in saying that it is wrong to baptize in any other way than by the formula of "in the name of Jesus."

The key is in what it means to do something "in the name of" another. To do something in the name of Jesus means to do it by His authority. Paul writes, "And whatsoever ye do in word, or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him' (Col. 3:17). Paul says that 'whatsoever' we do should be in the name of, or by the authority of Jesus. The name represents the one named, and is the equivalent to the person of the one named. Baptism is to be in the name of, or by the authority of the Father, who sent his Son to die for men; in the name of, or by the authority of the Son, who gave himself for us; and in the name of, or by the authority of the Holy Ghost, who came to comfort, and to guide the apostles into all truth. The Father, and the Son, and the Holy Ghost are all in agreement concerning baptism. When one is baptized in the name of Jesus Christ, he is baptized under His authority, regardless of what is said. As long as the person being baptized into Christ knows that he is being obedient to the authority of Christ, and the Lord knows that the person wants to be added to His church, it is not necessary that anything be said upon

The high school baseball season may be winding down, but the local sports scene won't slow down at all as youth baseball begins next week. C'mon out and watch a game -- the kids will appreciate it!

AREA BASEBALL TITLE SLIPS FROM TIGERS' GRASP

The Elba Tiger baseball team saw its hopes of a state playoff berth end last week with a loss to Pike County. The Tigers were hoping to make it to state in all three major sports, and while that goal won't be reached, the success in football and basketball probably did more harm than good to the Six starters on the baseball team began football practice way back in August and played until December, then went right into basketball season and went to state, prolonging the season by two weeks. Baseball practice began on Sunday's during basketball season, and instead of taking a week off for AFA the team competed in a tournament. The season, which ends Monday, includes 14 games in 5 weeks -- and that's a lot of ball!

The baseball team will end the season with a losing record (unless it catches fire); however, it won't be an indication of the players' talent -- it will simply show that the body can only do so much, no matter how young a person might be.

MICHAEL SCOTT MAKING HIS MARK THIS SPRING AT JSU

Elba's Michael Scott saw only limited playing time last season as a freshman at Jacksonville State; however, if his play this spring continues to shine, the former Tiger star could be a starter as a sophomore. Scott gained 61 yards on only 5 carries at a recent scrimmage and scored 2 touchdowns. Sounds familiar, doesn't it?

HAMMOND'S BODY SHOP IS EARLY SURPRISE IN MEN'S SOFTBALL

The Men's Softball League season is only a week old and it's hard to judge a team after only 2 games, but an early surprise has been the play of Hammond's Body Shop. Hammond's lost most of its players from last year's Class D powerhouse, and two weeks ago wasn't even sure it would field a team. Well, Hammond's does have a team and it scored 24 runs in two games last week to get off to a fast start. Watch out -- all's well at Hammond's!

CHANGE IN YOUTH SCHEDULES IS GOOD MOVE

The decision to move all Dixie Youth and Babe Ruth baseball games from Thursdays to Fridays until school is out is a move that should have been made years ago. The leagues are for boys ages 9-15 and the week-day games conflict with home work and study (and you know which will suffer). Once school is out, it won't make any difference, but until then books should come ting this week of April 24, 1986, in the Elba Nursing Home is Mr. Lee Andrew Brooks. And, when we say 'special," we say it in the sense one usually says it and means it: but Mr Andrew is also special in that he is one of "God's special children." Mr. Brooks is a cherubic-looking gentleman who is short, round and olump, with the sweetest, prettiest, and most innocent-looking smile. He has twinkly blue eyes and a shock of grayish hair. The day we visited him he was wearing his favorite attire -overalls. When questioned, he admitted to loving his overalls! Mr. Andrew, as he is called, was born June 4, 1905, near the Chestnut Grove Community. His parents were Mr. and Mrs. John Brooks. Mrs. Brooks was the former Nettie Grantham. We found it hard to believe he is 80 - almost 81, for his looks belie his age. He has a quick and ever-ready smile and apparently a quick wit, as well, for when we asked him if he ever got "out of sorts," and mad, he quickly said, "I've never had a wife," and we all

After the sickness, it took him a year to learn to walk again, and he was left mentally handicapped and with a

Although Mr. Andrew was left in this condition, his life has been an inspiration to those who know him: and, he has otherwise remained a healthy and spirited individual with a zest for living during most of his life until recent years. Mr. Andrew's brothers and

Mr. Andrew has always lived at home with his parents. Because he has been so closely attached to his parents, it would be proper to nention something about them at
